

Budget 2019: Protecting What Matters Most

Ontario's Minister of Finance Vic Fedeli will deliver remarks following the 2019 Ontario Budget set to be released on April 11. The government's first budget under Premier Doug Ford will protect the core services that matter most to the people of Ontario, including its world-class health care and education systems, while putting the province on a responsible and sustainable path back to balance. The government is committed to creating and protecting good jobs in Ontario, and putting the people first in every decision government makes.
